

Terms and Conditions

- These Terms and Conditions govern the use of the website jauntplanners.com and the services offered under the brand Jaunt Planners. By accessing the website or purchasing any service including visa assistance, itinerary planning, flight booking assistance, hotel booking support, or travel consultation, users agree to comply with these Terms and Conditions.
- Jaunt Planners operates primarily as a travel advisory and facilitation service. The company assists customers with planning travel, preparing visa documentation, and coordinating bookings with third-party providers such as airlines, hotels, visa centres, and travel operators. Jaunt Planners is not the principal provider of transportation, accommodation, or visa decisions.
- All travel services arranged through Jaunt Planners are subject to the terms, conditions, and policies of the respective third-party service providers. Airlines, hotels, tour operators, and visa authorities retain full authority over their services including pricing, availability, cancellations, rescheduling, and operational policies.
- Visa assistance services provided by Jaunt Planners include guidance on documentation, application procedures, and submission support. The decision to grant or refuse a visa rests solely with the relevant embassy, consulate, or immigration authority. Jaunt Planners does not guarantee visa approval and shall not be responsible for visa refusals or delays.
- Customers are responsible for ensuring that all travel documents including passports, visas, permits, and identification documents remain valid for the duration of travel. Jaunt Planners will not be liable for travel disruptions caused by expired, incomplete, or incorrect documentation provided by the traveler.
- All prices quoted for travel services are based on information available at the time of quotation and may be subject to change due to currency fluctuations, airline fare revisions, hotel rate changes, government taxes, or other regulatory adjustments. Final pricing will depend on actual booking conditions at the time of confirmation.
- Payments made for services such as itinerary planning, consultation, or documentation guidance represent payment for professional time, research, and administrative effort. Such services are generally considered delivered once the consultation or planning service has been provided.
- In cases where Jaunt Planners assists with booking flights, hotels, or tours through third-party vendors, cancellation and refund policies will be governed primarily by the respective provider's policies. Customers must review those policies before confirming any booking.
- Customers must provide accurate, truthful, and complete information when submitting travel documents or booking details. Jaunt Planners will not be responsible for errors, delays, or financial losses arising from incorrect information supplied by the customer.
- Travel plans may be affected by factors beyond the control of Jaunt Planners including weather disruptions, political events, airline operational changes, strikes, government regulations, public health restrictions, or natural disasters. Jaunt Planners shall not be held responsible for such unforeseen circumstances.
- Jaunt Planners reserves the right to refuse service where requests appear unlawful, fraudulent, abusive, or inconsistent with applicable travel regulations or business policies.
- The website may contain informational travel content including guides, recommendations, or destination insights. While reasonable efforts are made to ensure accuracy, travel information may change frequently. Users are encouraged to independently verify important details before finalizing travel decisions.
- All intellectual property on the website including text, travel guides, itineraries, branding, and visual materials is the property of Jaunt Planners unless otherwise stated. Unauthorized reproduction, copying, or commercial use of such material without written permission is prohibited.

- Customers using the services of Jaunt Planners agree to act responsibly and comply with the laws and regulations of the destination country, transit countries, and their country of residence. Jaunt Planners shall not be responsible for penalties, fines, or legal consequences arising from violations committed by travelers.
- Personal information collected during the course of providing travel services will be handled in accordance with the Jaunt Planners Privacy Policy. Customers are encouraged to review the Privacy Policy to understand how their information is used and protected.
- Customers agree to indemnify and hold harmless Jaunt Planners, its owners, employees, affiliates, and partners from any claims, damages, losses, liabilities, or expenses arising from the use of services, reliance on travel advice, or actions of third-party service providers.
- Jaunt Planners shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or financial losses including missed flights, lost reservations, travel disruptions, or personal inconvenience resulting from circumstances beyond the company's reasonable control.
- These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the applicable laws of India. Any disputes arising from the use of the website or services will be subject to the jurisdiction of competent courts in India.
- Jaunt Planners reserves the right to modify, update, or revise these Terms and Conditions at any time. Continued use of the website or services after such updates indicates acceptance of the revised terms.
